

The letters in the circles forming the four outside lines of the diamond printed on this page spell

BROMM'S BREAD

There are sixteen circles inside these lines, each containing a letter, which, when properly arranged, spell out a phrase of three words on the quality of Bromm's Bread. Can you pick out the words? Free theatre tickets will be given for the 25 best answers.

Through the courtesy of the Academy Theatre we are enabled to offer 25 free tickets to the performance at the Academy Monday evening, May 27th. Miss Lucile La Verne, the talented artist whose wonderful acting has given untold pleasure to Richmond theatre-goers this season, will appear in "Prince Chap," which recently completed a long run in the larger cities with unparalleled success.

Here is an opportunity to spend a delightful evening at no expense if you can find the correct phrase. The tickets will be awarded to the 25 correct answers arranged in the most unique and neatest way. Send answers by mail. In order to facilitate the handling of the mail we have arranged with The Times-Dispatch to receive answers. Address them to "Puzzle Editor," care Times-Dispatch, Richmond, Va. All answers must be received by 6 P. M. Friday, May 24, and only those sent by mail will be considered.
